Happiness

I like to close our time together with happiness. It is something all of us talk about. As you move forward in your business and life I wish for you the happiness that you seek.

Next time you have a conversation with someone else who is self-employed don't just listen to the words. Hear what is being said.

Very often, if you are hearing you will discover that one of the subjects that come up indirectly and sometimes directly is happiness.

So much has been written on happiness. Very often as self-employed individuals we come to believe that happiness is having more... more money, more business.

Perhaps for some that is true. Yet, for many happiness is not more.

If happiness is about more then we cannot be happy because we will never be satisfied.

Here's a thought.

The happiest people don't necessarily have the best of everything; they just make the most of everything that comes along their way.

1. Where do you feel unhappy or dissatisfied?

---

---

---

---

2. What will you have to change to make these happier situations?

---

---

---

---

a. How will you change your thinking?

---

---

b. After you change your thinking how will it change your behavior?

---

---

c. What are the results you are seeking?

---

---

d. Will your change in thinking and behavior bring you the results?

---

---

Life is a do it to your self proposition. What you say, think and do will come back to you with astounding accuracy.

Happy or unhappy? More often than not, the choice is yours. What are you sending out to others?

Remember, the happiest people don't necessarily have the best of everything; they just make the most of everything that comes along their way.

This is Steve wishing you all that you seek for your business and life.
