Who's Molding You?

Questions for Reflection and Evaluation

The story of the floor and the statue has two important points.

1. One is about the decisions you make.
2. The other is the profound influence of the people you come in contact with regularly.

1. Have you decided to go it alone? If so, what has that done to help your business?

2. How has going it alone hurt your business?

3. If you have others shaping and molding you how is it working?

4. Are there people who should not have the influence they do in your life? Explain.
And, then tell what you are going to about it.
